

About PAHO

What is PAHO? The Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) is an international public health agency with more than 100 years of experience in working to improve health and living standards of the countries of the Americas. It serves as the specialized organization for health of the Inter-American System. It also serves as the Regional Office for the Americas of the World Health Organization and enjoys international recognition as part of the United Nations system.

- PAHO Organizational Chart
- Values, Vision and Mission of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau
- PAHO Office and Area Sites
- Headquarters and Country Offices
- Regional and Subregional Centers, Institutes and Programs

Official Documents

- BASIC DOCUMENTS of the Pan American Health Organization, 17th ed.
- The Pan American Sanitary Code

- Constitution of the Pan American Health Organization
- The Pan American Sanitary Code: Toward a Hemispheric Health Policy
- Annual Reports of the Director & Quadrennial Reports of the Director (From 1994)

Member States

- Statement of Quota Contributions Due from Member States